

2010 Pennsylvania State Farm Show

January 9–16, 2010

Farm Show Complex, Harrisburg, PA

Take a road trip to the Farm Show! PVMA and PVF Need Volunteers!

Volunteers receive a parking pass, admission to the show, and a free meal.

We invite you to help represent veterinary medicine at the 2010 Pennsylvania Farm Show by staffing the PVMA or PVF booth during the 8-day event. In preparation for the Association's participation at the 2010 Pennsylvania State Farm Show on January 9–16, 2010, in Harrisburg, PA, we have included a list of the dates and times that volunteers are needed to help staff the PVMA and PVF booths. Because of the size and duration for the Farm Show, which attracts hundreds of thousands of people, it is our goal to have enough volunteers to adequately cover the event in 4-hour shifts during the hours of operation.

Attention small animal veterinarians! Because of the public nature of the show, many of the questions asked are related to companion animal care. We need you just as much as your large animal and equine veterinarian colleagues!

If you are available to volunteer your time, please complete the form and return it to the PVMA office by November 6, 2009. Directions, exhibitor parking passes, and related materials will be sent to all volunteers prior to the event. Meal expenses are covered during volunteers' shifts. Thanks for your assistance!

Exciting changes made for 2010!

In an effort to make PVMA's booth more interactive and exciting, we will have NINE "discovery zones" where attendees can experience different facets of veterinary medicine first hand in our 20'x20' exhibit.

DISCOVERY ZONES:

- Caring for Your Pet
- Animal Welfare
- Public Health
- Diagnostics
- Bone Zone
- Biomedical Research
- Emergency and Disaster Preparedness
- Careers in Veterinary Medicine
- Project Pennsylvania

The PVF booth will feature its current initiatives such as The TLC Fund, NAVS, and the PVF Scholarship. Because we will have a lot of activity going on in the two booths, more volunteers are needed. Please indicate below which shift(s) you would like to cover and send to Barb Pollihan at the PVMA office.
